

ATI Physical Therapy's Ryan Huff Named Calhoun County's Best Physical Therapist

BOLINGBROOK, III., (August 16, 2017) - ATI Physical Therapy's Ryan Huff PT, DPT of Calhoun County has been named "Best Physical Therapist in Calhoun County" by The Anniston Star's 2017 Reader's Choice Awards.

The Anniston Star has hosted their annual Reader's Choice Awards contest since 2010, asking residents to cast a vote for their favorite business in more than 100 categories ranging from goods to services. Since 2010, the number of voter submissions have increased and this year proved no different, with more than 25,000 submissions.

"It's truly an honor to be recognized as the best physical therapist by the Calhoun community," said Huff. "Having an opportunity to make a lasting difference in the lives of others is a truly remarkable feeling, and to know I'm making a huge impact while doing it makes my role that much more rewarding. Thank you to all those who voted for me!"

Huff is an area director and local physical therapist for ATI Physical Therapy and has been a resident of the tri-county area for most of his life. He graduated from Faulkner University in Montgomery, Ala., with a Bachelor of Arts in Science, and went on to earn his Doctorate degree in Physical Therapy from Alabama State University. To help patients achieve the best possible outcomes, Huff develops individualized programs based on the patient's needs. His goal is to help the patient to thrive, prevent future injuries and have a great quality of life. Patients of all ages and injuries benefit from Huff's approach to physical therapy, which is built on a progression of knowledge through continued education in the field.

ATI Physical Therapy currently has five locations in the state of Alabama located in Birmingham, Trussville and Lincoln. By the end of 2017, ATI plans to have opened an additional 10 clinics within the region. Nationwide, ATI operates more than 700 clinics across 25 states.

Known for high quality of care and exceptional results, ATI Physical Therapy provides personalized treatment plans and a hands-on approach to physical therapy and sports medicine. First appointments with all ATI clinics are scheduled within 24-48 hours, and early morning and evening hours are available to accommodate patient schedules. Rehabilitation services include manual therapy, therapeutic exercise, strength training, cardiovascular conditioning, sports-specific training, and therapeutic modalities, such as ultrasound and electrical stimulation.

ATI offers expanded hours and complimentary screenings, plus accepts virtually all major insurance carriers. Unique to the industry, ATI's dedicated in-house research department aims to improve patient outcomes through basic science, research and evidence-based medicine. This includes the ATI Patient Outcomes Registry, a collection of data that supports an innovative approach to physical therapy that improves awareness of patient outcomes and how the rehabilitative process can impact patients' quality of life.
